

The do not call list should be left alone. It really helps our families with privacy.